

2-8-9-40

(2-8-9-40) Some used forks while others merely held between fingers as a gesture. Our improvised table saved the day, As we had enough nature in the row anyway, we felt we could delevate ourselves to the extent of a table.

3-8-9-40

(3-8-9-40) meal time. note the seating facilities. The most comfortable position being perpendicular.

1-8-10-40

(1-8-10-40) Ray watches water movement along the shoreline. This position about 50' from camp and at a place where we caught most of our larger fish with angle worms. Typical thunder clouds in distance. Looking directly east.

2-8-10-40

(2-8-10-40) Battleship Utah. note house slippers on Burnetts feet. Comfort to the 10th degree. Anyway it worked, but only at the expense of a great amount of human energy.
