

Began at sunrise (6:30 A.M. with Leavenworth Creek and Vancouver Lake in mind. Weather clear - hot stiff N.W. wind on Lake.

Spinus tristis salicamans

Merula erythrogastra.

Bend in the Creek below right of way.

Thryomanes bewickii calaptonus

Turdus migratorius caurinus

Empidonax traillii brewsteri

Melospiza melodia morphna

Pipilo maculatus oregonus

Sylorichla ustulata ustulata

Sitta canadensis

Geothlypis trichas occidentalis. all the ♂ are molting or molted, giving a half-domino effect to their usual conspicuous eye streak.

Vireo gilvus swainsoni

Dendroica aestiva brewsteri.

Spinus tristis salicamans - wherever found this happy fellow was numerous and feeding largely on weed seeds, milkweed and such forms as thistle.

Empidonax mexicanus frontalis

Colaptes cafer cafer

Loxia curvirostra sitkensis

Parus ludovicianus

Top of hill - Bonnaville right of way leading to Ampere.

Geothlypis trichas occidentalis - exceptionally abundant

Pipilo maculatus oregonus

Old city trash disposal area on north side of Leavenworth at bend.

Certhia

Spizella passerina arizonae.

Crossbills feeding in fir tops above.

near P. street bridge across creek and up past dwelling to Leavenworth Park.

Vireo solitarius cassinii

Passerculus grammurus affinis

Toxostoma thalassina lepida

From this position in creek bottom near Leavenworth Park trended up the north hill toward Ampere hence along crest of ridge to the