

rannus hiemalis pacificus 1 bird.

Dendroica auduboni auduboni. In area of Couch Creek found them few but in willow succession at south end of lake found them represented in great numbers. Have found that when one finds a species in the willows they are represented in dominance.

Dendroica aestiva brewsteri 1 bird

Zonotrichia leucophrys jugertensis. 2 small groups

Accipiter cooperi. 2 birds in some area, soared and attached Swainson Hawk.

Buteo swainsoni. 2 birds together associated with the above.

Dryobates villosus harrisi 1 bird

Totanus flavipes 6 in one group and 4 in another

Totanus melanoleucus 2. Questionable.

Megascops alcyon caurina. 1 as of last week post-ion

Ardea herodias farrini. Possibly 25 birds. One group of 12 of the 25.

Anas platyrhynchos platyrhynchos.

Querquedula discors

Querquedula cyanoptera

Ait sponsa

many of the duck flocks June.

Mareca americana

Crementis mauri

Pisobia minutilla. As of last week census

Pisobia melanotos. as of last week census.

Groups of 4-4-2-1

Ceryle cyanocephalus.

Anthus spinoletta rubescens. Approx 300 birds, mainly in small groups and singles. Feeding mainly with hardpaper upon the mud shorelines and flats, others either resting or feeding in first growth of grasses bordering lake. A progressive increase since last month. census with birds feeding more in opened positions along lake shore.

Larus delawarensis. Increase.

Phalacrocorax auritus albicollis singles 2, resting