

Colaptes cafer cafer - 3Thryomanes bewickii colophonus 11Indoprogne bicolor usualGeothlypis trichas occidentalis. Pairs always close togetherCeryle vociferans vociferans 24Aryzobates pubescens gardneri 3Passerina amoena 3Hedymeles melanocephalus papagoHyalocichla ustulata auduboni 10Cyanocitta stelleri stelleri 2Bonhycella cedrorum 13Stelgidopteryx thalassina lepidaJunco oreganus oreganus 12Vireo solitarius cassinii 7Melospiza pusilla 2Dendroica auduboni 6. In deep forests has single faint call or whistle resembling western flycatcherRegulus satrapa shoupsii. Group in same area as of last week
Six spongia 12. two families young about 10 each and not many days old.Corvus brachyrhynchos hesperis 6Penthestis atricapillus oregonus 3Poocetes grammurus confinis 1Ardea herodias fannini 11Hirundo erythrogastrus usualPetrochelidon albefrons usualEuphagus cyanocephalusChaetura vauxiPasserculus sandwichensis alaudinus 15Glucaris alpestris 6Sitta carolinense 2. isolated (2 sq acres) same grove of oak as of last tripLarus delawarensis 13Cathartes aura 1 2 crows chasingLarus glaucescens 18Larus philadelphia 1. Actions more like a yellowlegs than a gull. Identification unquestionable. Raises wings before flying. Its movements are nervous and not calm or collected as a gull.Columba fasciata fasciata 4