

bordering a beaver pond. Willows dominate edge of creek.

The following mammals collected.

- 30-9-5-48 Microtus pennsylvanicus trap 75
- 31-9-5-48 " ochrogaster trap 76
- 33-9-5-48 " " trap 78
- 34-9-5-48 " " trap 79

The m. pennsylvanicus was in the same complex of runways as was used by m. ochrogaster and only 20 feet apart. Traps nos 83, 84 sprung.

From a spot 50 feet from above locality but along an irrigation canal with dry grasses and white + yellow clover with old stems forming a mat condition, collected the following mammals from traps nos 87 to 100, place there yesterday evening.

- 35-9-5-48 Peromyscus trap 87
 - 36-9-5-48 " trap 89
 - 37-9-5-48 " trap 90
 - 38-9-5-48 " trap 91
 - 39-9-5-48 " trap 93
 - 40-9-5-48 " trap 94
- Trap no 92 sprung.

29 mi. N and 8 3/4 mi. E Laramie, 6420, Albany Co., Wyoming
Sept. 6, 1948

This locality is also listed as 10.5 mi. up Sybille Creek on highway 26 from the Albany Co. line. Because of insufficiency of adequate maps this same locality may also carry the designation of 27 mi. N and 8 mi E Laramie, 6420 ft., Albany Co., Wyoming.

Yesterday evening set 42 traps here in a grass meadow which was damp to wet. These are native grasses & sedges of river bottoms. Mammals from this trap line are: (traps 20 feet apart)

- 1-9-6-48 Microtus longicaudus trap 9
- 2-9-6-48 " ochrogaster trap 11
- 3-9-6-48 " ochrogaster trap 12
- 4-9-6-48 Peromyscus trap 16
- 5-9-6-48 Lincoln sparrow trap 19
- 6-9-6-48 Microtus ochrogaster trap 24
- 7-9-6-48 " " trap 25
- 8-9-6-48 " " trap 27
- 9-9-6-48 " " trap 28
- 10-9-6-48 Peromyscus trap 35