

Phalacrocorax penicillatus. Common
Phalacrocorax pelagicus resplendens. Common and breeding birds in this area particularly on mainland cliffs east of Duck Island.

Ardea herodias farrini. 1 bird observed
Heteroscoptes heteroscoptes pacificus. Occasionally observed and generally around deep beds at the various islands.

Metanetta deglandi Groups of 2 to 50

Metanetta perspicillata. About as common as above

Oidemia americana ? one bird.

Cathartes aura septentrionalis flying over island areas

Buteo borealis calurus. Along shore line trees.

Haliaeetus leuccephalus leuccephalus. pair at Cattle point where they remained in same area. Observe this bird in practically every trip among islands of the area.

Phasianus colchicus torquatus. False Bay.

Haematopus buckhami pair at Hall island

Oxyechus vociferans vociferans. Near False Bay

Arenaria melanocephala 18 at Hall island

Aphriza virgata 2 at Hall island

Larus glaucescens Common nesting birds. 250 banded at Hall island. young  $\frac{3}{4}$  size of adults in some cases.

Larus philadelphia. Increasing in numbers the last week. approx 20 observed today.

Larus heermanni Generally found in association with other gulls among gull population.

Uria aalge californica. 18 in channel N. of Hall Island

Cephus columba Common all along route, generally in pairs.

Budytes marmoratus. Ibid and generally in pairs.

Cerorhinca monocerata 2 pairs in channel N. Hall Island

Bubo virginianus saturatus. One at False Bay. on point west of False Bay Channel.

Selasphorus rufus False Bay.

Hirundo erythrogastris, False Bay.

Corvus brachyrhynchos caurinus Common along entire route

Penthestes rufescens rufescens False Bay.

Empidonax difficilis difficilis " "