

5 raven, 1 pigeon hawk eating caribou. Bear dropping 100 feet beyond with bone in feces.

Area between moraine and lake completely trampled by caribou to consistency of mud. No grasses, sedges present

Last major canyon before glacier

Pasture like alluvium and concentration of caribou hair

Winnow caribou hair 5'x40'x6" on shoreline below crossing

Trail of approx. 7,000 Caribou wolf, bear and wolverine tracks along entire route especially upper Carnivore Lake. Follow paths of least resistance established by Caribou. Trend of Carnivore tracks up canyon on west side of river and down canyon on east side.

CARNIVORE LAKES

Upper limits of Carnivore Canyon and river south of Lake Peters showing Caribou trails and other observations. Elevations established with sensitive altimeter with base of 2900 at Lake Peters.