

Museum Natural History, Lawrence, Kansas

April 30, 1953

Weight of Microstonyx (ex. no. 53031-1). no 530828-1, 50.6 gms.;
no. 530506-1, 47.5 gms.

May 4, 1953

Letter from Harold Propido, April 27, to Prof. Hall stating that he will contact Farnsworth in about 2 weeks and will find out the cause of delay.

Wakarusa River, Hashell Bottoms, S Lawrence, Kansas

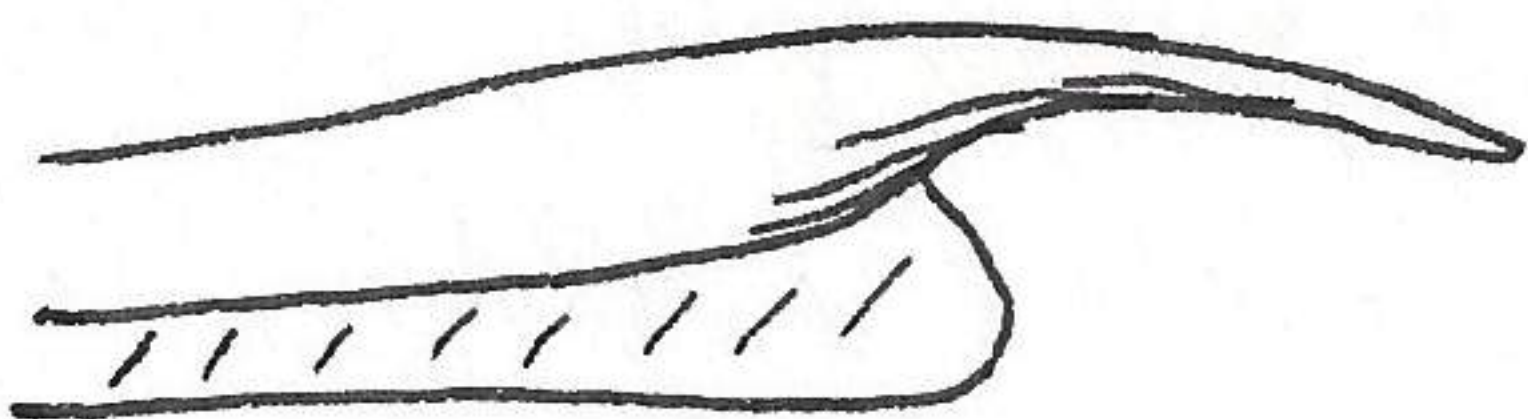

May 4, 1953

Western bluebird and 1 fresh egg in stump 4 feet high among stand of trees along river. Both birds 50' from nest when approached.

Museum Natural History, Univ. of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas.

May 6, 1953

Examination of Microstonyx (ex. no. 53031-1) no 530828-1, 51.3 gms.; no. 530506-1, 48.0 gms. The female no. 530506-1 was found dead this morning at 9:30 A.M. Cause of death unknown. Weight comparable to other female and so death not dietary. Prepared this animal. ♀ Microstonyx groenlandicus rubricatus no 530506-1 J.B. 118-17-17-6-47.5 gms. Vagina closed.

Condition of third toe of front foot.

May 9, 1953

High wind this A.M. Mourning dove flying with wind as if for pleasure.

Topeka, Kansas

May 15, 1953

Night hawks have been flying over city buildings every night that weather permitted and calling, from the first of May to the 15th. Will see how long they will continue to call.

3 mi. S Big Springs, Shawnee Co., Kansas

May 18, 1953

84 black terns flying over uplands about 7 mi. S of Kaw