

Guatemala and all prepared by servant help. Fresh bread, roast, potatoes & gravy, carrots, cauliflower, beans, salad, ice cream, cookies, strawberry jam (of which she gave me one quart and a fresh loaf of bread to take on the way), milk, tea and candy.

For breakfast - ham, potatoes, beans, eggs, toast, cereal, milk, tea. The cereal is something you might practice on before I get home. It is grape nut home made. I could not tell the difference.

Prepare regular brown bread, cut as thin as possible, caramelize in oven and then fragment. In the patio were <sup>growing</sup> bananas of two kinds, oranges, grapefruit, pineapples, avocados and other fruits. Her table was set to perfection. Their house is like such

Her clinic is a pharmacy actually, where she sells drugs, most of the most modern and recent of development, at near cost - much to the displeasure of the town pharmacist, a man who had been cheating the natives with exorbitant prices. - pills for 10¢ a piece that cost him 50¢ a thousand. Sister Richard had pulled 570 teeth last year! She delivers babies, and does many minor pieces of surgery but without a license. Rev. B. acted as mediator between the Communists and the anti-Communists during the last reign of Rev. Arbenz. He did more to keep the death rate down than any other man in