

COLLECTING PATTERN.

1545 = 1328 mammals, 217 bird skeleton (Reptiles, fish & invertebrates excluded)

151 days in expedition (Nov 22, 1954 - April 1, 1955)

110 days in Guatemala, 83 collecting days.

60 days with 10 specimens or more per day. (museum quota)

2.6 specimens per day average of 60 days.

non-collecting days:

1. Travel to and from U.S.
2. Travel days in Guatemala.
3. periods of national emergency (Confined to village and no travel permitted (no gas sold)).
4. political protocol.
5. arrangement period and getting car and gun out of bond, 60 waiting for arrival of car.

