

at a point on a ridge east of Coral Bay where road crosses and drops down into the lowland near the bay, found a fork with the following inscription: The road had been made through the remains of an old habitation, now reduced to a mound. This site is in the general vicinity of photo 570808-1.

RJS

570808-1a

