

93917 Crow, 93920 magpie, 93919 Crow ⁶⁷⁰⁶²⁵⁻⁶⁵ and bottom [↑] of mt. road and leaving valley, 93922 magpie, 93934 Robbed Ears & now going down slope. Higher slope with aspen, just starting, lower are yellowish leaves. Snow among conifers. On drainage to E noted 5 single ducks on beaver ponds, a large duck and a smaller one. 93944 Crow & sparrow hawk, & 4 magpies, 93945 Diamond Creek, 93948 magpie. 93956 magpie ^{of} at Big Muddy Creek, 93955 5 magpies & 1 duck. (Pass Creek) 93975 group yellow-headed blackbirds, 93979 Corral Creek and magpie. 93983 Colorado River. 93986. Not Sulphur Springs Striped skunk road kill. 93992 3 magpie. 93997 Granby. 94008 sparrow hawk 94030 Berthoud Pass, 6:50 P.M., 11307 ft. [↑] result of high altitude (unk flow). 94048 magpie (at Lawson). 94089 5 magpie. Denver at 94095 at 8:30 P.M.

Denver, Colorado (East Colfax), Colorado

Sun up at 5:30 A.M. June 26, 1967
 Temp 5:30 is 54° F. Left Denver at 6:00 A.M. at mileage 94121. Between 94121 and 94126 on Colfax noted 4 jackrabbit road kills & 2 flocks of blackbirds. From ~~junction of 70 + Colfax (94126)~~ Strasburg to Lawrence will keep complete record of these birds [↑] mention at first entry of trip plus the lark bunting and the first occurrence of the duck call. Skies clear to east, some to west. Stopped walkies at 6:12 A.M. bunting since we left.

Strasburg, 7:00 A.M., 6²/₁₀° F, mileage ⁹⁴¹⁴⁹ (Complete census between towns)

- m. dove 1-1-2-1-1 [1 per mi]
- redwing 1-2- [0.50 per mi]
- l bunting 1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1 [1.50 per mi.]
- m. lark 1-1-1- [0.50 per mi]
- h. lark 1- [0.17 per mi]
- w. kingbird 1- [0.17 per mi]
- Eng sp 2 [0.33 per mi.]

Birds within cities are not listed. Census starts from outskirts beyond influence of trees and building, generally about 1/2 mile beyond villages

Byers 94155

- m dove 1- [0.13/mi]
- redwing 2-1-1-1- [0.71/mi]
- l bunting 1-1- [0.30/mi.]
- m lark 1-1-1- [0.43/mi.]
- swainson hawk (?) 1- [0.13/mi]
- w. kingbird 1 [0.13/mi]