

intake. The storm of the last few days changed and the rain stopped (late afternoon). There was a noticeable increase ^{in bird songs} and anticipation of the end of the rain by about 20 minutes. Usual birds in area.

Lawrence Water Plant (intake), Douglas Co., Kansas

June 5, 1970

Studied current systems of Kaw River at peak of flood, about 1 foot from flood stage in this area. The observations are as follows:

Kaw Valley, Lawrence Area, Douglas Co., Kansas

June 6, 1970

made census of birds and mammals along railroad grade