72.4 Jackson Lake. 84.4 Intercoastal waterway. 85.3 Surfside. and road along beach. sanderling, ringbilled gull, 5 willets in one group. This area has a pollution problem. 86.1 left beach at fisherman wharf. 86.2 sparrow hawk (2). This area is summer homes on stelts. 91.1 sparrow hawk. 93.4 sparrow hawk. 94.4 marsh hawk. not much wildlife. 96.7 sparrow hawk. Striped skunk rd, 98.5 Tall bridge, extensive surf (1 mile) comming in from gulf. Area with good water resources for birds! many cattle egrets and white pelicans. 07.2 marsh hawk. 08.0 sparrow hawk. 08.1 sparrow hawk. 09.3 sparrow hawk. 10.5 2 sparrow hawks. (71°F). 12.0 only 12 miles from Galveston. 12.7 marsh hawk. 47.723. at Galveston, 12:30 P.M. 27.3 E end of Galveston and although not many building is not a good place for birds. Pelican Island may be better. Left at 3:00 from Galveston. 500 gulls in several groups and is the dominant bird. 55.2 2 sparrow hawks. 62.0 NASSA, at 4:00 P.M. Saw new space lab. ~~Le~~ 62.0 at 5:15 left Nassa. Continued N thru Dallas. at late twilight, this city is extremely attractive with the brilliant lights of the city and parade of car lights on the super highways. continued N to Huntsville. State Park where we camped.

Huntsville State Park, Texas

Jan 14, 1972

Temp last night 36°F. This area in the pines has been developed more than when visited 3 years ago with more camp sites. Surveyed the same area as of previous trip and in 1/2 hour observed the following birds. 3 sing sparrow, 6 Carolina Chickadees, crow 8, Carolina wren 3 and singing, robin 12, kinny 1, downy 2, turkey vultures 58 in trees at edge of lake with backs turned to morning sun, some with wings outspread, redtail 1, eastern bluebird 18, juncos 6, pied-billed grebe 5, kingfisher 2, coot 3, mallard 2, red shouldered hawk? 1, swamp sparrow 2, cardinal 3, titmouse 3, redbellied woodpecker 2, creeper 1, pileated woodpecker 3, ruby-crowned kinglet myrtle warbler 2, fox sparrow 1, Cooper hawk, yellow-bellied sapsucker, pine siskin 8, goldfinch 6, white-breasted