

- 7:05 Pheasant calling & drumming up canyon.
- 7:05 Virginia Warbler warbling 200' north of spring.
- 7:06 Pheasant calling & drumming up canyon
- 7:08 Did not see deer at same point as yesterday
- 7:09 Pheasant calling & drumming up canyon
- 7:09 Spurred Towhee scolding more milder than normal.
- 7:10 Pheasant calling & drumming up canyon
- 7:10 Virginia chirping 50' in front on trail. Worked into oak and chirped.
- 7:14 Humming bird flying east and calling.
- 7:14 Pheasant calling
- 7:17 Virginia Warbler chirping louder than usual
- 7:18 ♂ and ♀ together fought, ^{3rd} ~~third~~ member on its appearance. watched at 20'
- 7:21 Heard Woodhouse Jay on flat.
- 7:25 Virginia Warbler 40' ahead, singing in top of oak on brink of valley to the left. Flew down hill on approach.
- 7:26 Area where last towhee was scolding mildly now singing
- 7:27 Virginia Warblers, one singing to the left of trail, one to the right of trail.
- 7:27 Fresh deer tracks in trail.
- 7:28 Magpie flew across head of 1st valley.
- 7:29 Pheasant calling & drumming
- 7:29 " " " "
- 7:30 Spurred Towhee feeding along trail, flew into oak and began scratching in leaves.
- 7:30 Green Tailed Towhee 15' ahead in trail, scratching along edge and feeding in dry leaves, shook feathers occasionally. Area still in shade of hill.
- 7:36 Pheasant calling & drumming
- 7:37 " " " "
- 7:30 It continued to feed at edge of oak in trail about 30' in head. Followed it along for 150' to a point where ^{trail leaves} oak and crosses sage brush area. The towhee at this point left trail and followed the outer edge of oak uphill. A Spurred Towhee followed along on left side of trail in oak, for about 100 feet. Grosbeak flew across trail and lit in oak. When about 100' feet beyond could hear the bird beginning to sing very feebly and incomplete at first. Same area as observed the preceding day.
- 7:36 Mourning dove calling
- 7:42 no wind no clouds. Mourning dove flew from top of oak to left of brink.
- 7:42 Spurred Towhee & Virginia Warbler singing in flat far below
- 7:45 Starting up 1st valley
- 7:45 Grosbeak seen (7:30) singing again but number of notes few and volume ^{sub.} abnormal.
- 7:45 Pheasant calling & drumming
- 7:46 " " " "
- 7:47 2 Virginia warblers chirping 30' east & north in oak.
- 7:47 Approached Chipping Sparrow ^{swamp on lower slope} 80' ahead near trail. In top of oak tree. Flew over head and lit in oak tree behind and proceeded to sing in same volume as before.
- 7:48 2 Chipping Sparrows in oak to left.
- 7:49 Virginia warbler chirping in oak trees as he worked along toward the escarpment.
- 7:54 Spurred Towhee scolding 40' to left.
- 7:56 Pheasant calling & drumming.