741207-142

Perry Reservoir, Jefferson Co., Kansas
Dec. 7, 1974

Checks ducks and birds in Perry Reservoir area. Left 94273.8 at 9:00 A.M, sky overcast & foggy this A.M but now 60% clear to N, but cloudy to S., temp. 35°F, wind from N. 75.6 Kanwl-Leecompton Rd. Will list all birds. 76.8 redtail, 77.7 5 starling, 3 meadowlark. 79.3 12 lesser scaup in pond, 3 crows, 2 crows but no redtail in usual place. 79.5 2 crows, meadowlark. Trees show new green color on bark of masses rejuvenated by recent rains. 80.0 2 crows. 81.3 redtail. 81.6 N-S Leecompton Rd. 82.0 bluejay. 82.7 redtail. 83.3 shrike, starling. 84.8 Leecompton Bridge, many island of sands in river and no main channel as of pre-Corps of Engineer dam construction. 85.4 redtail and back toward sun rather than ~~to the~~ facing sun. all redtails so far have been about 1/2 way up tree. Horned lark. 86.4 Union Pacific R.R. tracks. 86.9 5 starling 87.1 3 starling. 87.7 delaware river. 88.3 starling. 89.6 highway 24. 90.9 Thompsonville Road. 91.4 6 slate-colored juncos 91.7 now N. This turn is about 1/10 mi. before sign entrance to Perry Reservoir and for all purpose can be considered the beginning of the official Perry Reservoir area. 92.0 oak trees in drainage to left still carry the dead leaves and there is very little evidence that they have changed since they lost their red color in the autumn. 92.5 Overlook at 9:50 A.M. Group of 3,400 blue and snow geese in a compact raft in center of lake N of the dam. Ratio as follows of blues to snows of one part of flock.

blues: |||| |||| ||||