

Left Tenderfoot Camp at mileage 5732 at 10:50 A.M. Returned to Dillon thence up thru Eisenhower tunnel under Loveland Pass, thence to Denver and then to Boulder where we left Polly who was to join a geologist friend in the Spanish Peaks area. Continued to Limon, Colorado where we stayed for the night arriving at 10:00 P.M.

Limon, Colorado

Aug. 13, 1975

Left 7:30 A.M. at mileage 5939. Nighthawks flying in fog. Return by I. 70. 6025 badger roadkill. 6026.6 Kansas State Line. 6180 redtail hawk. Rain all the way across Kansas. Arrived Lawrence 9:50 P.M. at approx 6396 mileage. or 3,451 miles all told.

List of birds according to first observed.

robin (Kansas)

Eng. sparrow

grackle

starling

red-headed woodpecker

barn swallow

brown thrasher

crow

meadowlark, eastern

chickadee

house wren

red-wing

cowbird

killdeer

western kingbird

redtail

mourning dove

meadowlark, western?

rufous throated hummerbird

nighthawk

green heron

eastern kingbird

shrike

bluejay

pheasant

ducks

horned lark

Cooper hawk

lark bunting

Swanson hawk (Colo border)

sparrow hawk

Indigo bunting

Stellers jay

spotted sandpipers

arctic three toed woodpecker

Canada jay

grey headed junco

white-crowned sparrow

roven

warbler

thrush

western flycatcher

mountain bluebird

magpie.

veery

turkey vulture

snowy egret (Wyoming)

mallard

pentail

marsh hawk

Calif. gull.

red-shafted flicker

Clarks crow

rock mt pine grosbeak

pine siskin

white-crowned sparrow

Sprague pipit

leucosticte

golden eagle

wilson snipe

long-billed marsh wren

coot

pie-billed grebe

yellow headed blackbird

lesser yellowlegs

eared grebe

sage thrasher

sage hen

sage sparrow

chipping sparrow

Franklin gull

ovocet (Utah)

black-necked stilt

Canada goose

W.F. glossy ibis

Forster tern

black-crowned night heron

western grebe

great blue heron

least sandpiper

western sandpiper

~~long-billed dowitcher~~

black tern

muddy duck

godwit

cinnamon teal

long-billed curlew

total 86 species