

Heart of the Hills Camp Ground, Olympic National Park, Washington.

Sept. 10, 1983

Left this A.M. and started for Elioka Canyon but too much rain and clouds. Drove then to Klungenesse State Park. Camped near cliffs on W side. In evening walked down to spit. Observed peregrine falcon on top dead Douglas fir tree. It flew to new position up ridge about 1/10 mi. while in tree, preened and stretched for approx 20 minutes. Other birds in area:

marbled murrelet 5
Bonaparte gull 12
glaucous winged gull 185
Heermann gull 16
herring gull 25
Calf gull? 18
godwit, sp? 600
willet 10
nw crow 6
great blue heron 2
surf scoter 18
savanna sparrow 2
chipmunk
gopher or mole.
robin.

white-crowned sparrow 8
song sparrows 2
rufous sided towhee 2
bush tito 48
red-shafted flicker 2
silldeer 1
black-capped chickadee 2
mt-chickadee 2
2 harbor seal

Klungenesse State Park, Clallam Co., Washington.

Sept 11, 1983

Left Klungenesse State Park to Port Townsend and left Max there. Drove to Comslow, thence ferry to Seattle, thence to Chris and Steve's home where we stayed overnight.

10814 55th S., Seattle, <sup>King Co.</sup> Washington.

Sept 12, 1983

Left Chris' and drove to S Widbey State Park. Camped there.

S Widbey <sup>Island</sup> State Park, Washington.

Sept 13, 1983

This park is climax Douglas fir forests. One Douglas tree 4' in diameter, one maple 3' in diameter. Glaucous-winged gulls, Bonaparte gulls and arctic tern common along beach. Left and at a land fill between here and Coupeville, counted 808 glaucous-winged gulls and 173 crows. Continued to LaConner Preserve