

alighting in residential area but must moved E to fields beyond City. Left 7:30 A.M. with Provo as destination.

8 Brewer's blackbirds in town. 804.1 marsh hawk. 815.2 raven. 819.0 raven. 824.5 5 magpies and 2 raven at a recent mule deer road kill (cleaning up small fragments from pavement. no deer carcass evident. 824.5 short-eared owl road kill. 828.5 2 raven 830.0 raven

832.4 passing by colorful road cut on left, old road down slope on right is supporting artemisia that is same size as sagebrush on natural slopes. Larger growth still assumes position on edge of road. ~~road~~ The colored rocks may be ash layers among road. the lava strata that does show penetration of ash among the layers of lava. magpie at Immigrant Pass. Snow plow has pushed up 6-10 inches of snow but only remnant of previous snow.

Red-tailed hawk and magpie nests in black willow just beyond Immigrant Pass. Magpie flew by. Clouds uniformly low and dripping snow on higher peaks and some ranges holding back. Clouds from morning E. 837.9 raven leaving just past (we) ^{2/10 mi} into Elko Co. 857.8 now along Humboldt River to my right. 2 teal and 1 muskrat in river. 15 unidentified ducks along river. River valley along river are a reddish barked willow-like bush, could be Kimikmik. some sections of river valley are completely covered with this reddish barked willow(?). 866.4 raven. Exit 298 Humboldt = 868.3

879.0 valley 90% in solid red barked willow (as above), 10% on outer edge is grass. Clouds getting lower & more snow in upper elevations. 884.3 magpie. 891.0 raven. 895.9

highest concentration of cattle in grazing range. 899.0 6 teal in partly open pond. 906.8 beaver dam. Snow on mts to E 1/2 way down (currently snowing there), magpie.

908.2 red-tailed hawk. 909.8 ferruginous roughleg, gopher mounds in fields. now approaching snowline. mt to east has band of snow half way up slope, less above and below it. Temp 46°F. 914.7 roughleg hawk. 916.2 raven. 919.7 raven. Exit 351 is 921.5

Color gone on trees in town. 925.4, first pygmy forest and completely dominating slopes. 926.6 2 raven. 927.8

now solid forest of juniper-pinyons. 934.9 roughleg hawk. mts to E covered with pygmy forests. 936.3 jack rabbit road kill in either Oregon or Nevada. 936.4 ferruginous