Dear Dr. Allred,

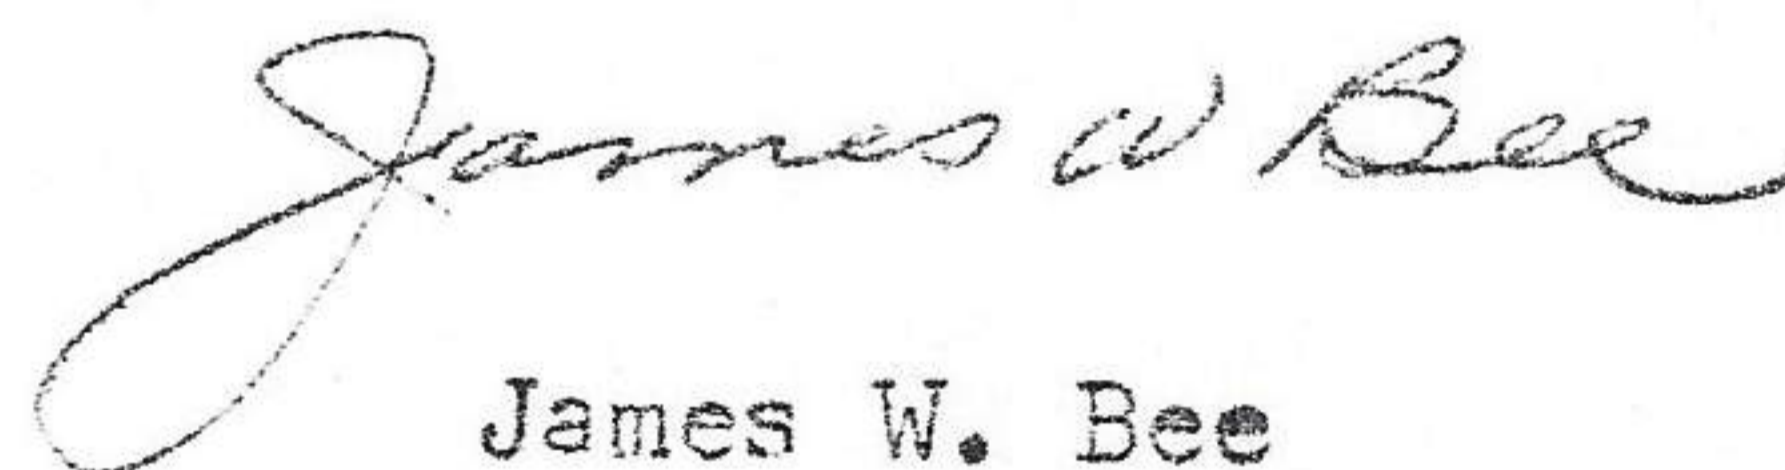

Recently we discussed the possibility of housing paintings belonging to me in the Bean Museum for the purpose of disposition by sale.

Ten per cent (10%) of each individual sale is to be placed in the James W. Bee Endowment (fund) and all remaining monies accrued from the sale of this material are to be returned to James W. Bee for support of his field work and research for Brigham Young University.

The value (price firm) for these paintings as ~~informally~~ appraised by Attorney Rulon Morgan of Provo, Utah is as follows:

710825-1	JWB	W.C. ADAMS	Hunter, dogs, grizzly bear	$10,000.00
710825-3	JWB	" "	Hunter, horse, grizzly bear	$10,000.00
710825-4	JWB	" "	Fisherman, canoe, water falls	$10,000.00
710825-6	JWB	" "	"Big Game"	$ 5,000.00
710825-7	JWB	Paul Salisbury	"Destiny"	$40,000.00
710825-8	JWB	Paul Salisbury	"The Harvester"	$30,000.00
770911-1	JWB	" "	"Taking a Breather"	$15,000.00

Cordially
