

380729-231

Travelling through Kiabab Forest recorded succession of flora and occurrence of animal life.

| Deer and flora                                                         | Mileage | Position                |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|--------------------------------|
| Artemisia flats                                                               | 55.0           | Entering Kiabab Natl F.        |
| Cliff rose beginningto appear but junipersand pinyon dominant         | 57.3           |                                |
| Few oak and serviceberry starting at                                      | 60.0           |                                |
| First Ponderosa pine                                                          | 60.4           |                                |
| Ponderosa pine nowdominant                                                | 62.0           |                                |
| Lupine profusely mattingforest floor & in blossom                         | 63.4           |                                |
| Few aspen & first ones                                                        | 70.7           |                                |
| Three raven                                                                   | 76.0           |                                |
| Firs and Spruces                                                              | 76.1           |                                |
| Spruces, fir, aspen andassociated flora replacingthe Ponderosa Pines  | 76.5           |                                |
| First deer                                                                    | 79.5           |                                |
| aspen, fir &amp; spruce withopen savannas and grass-lands. | 88.5           | Head of first Savanna          |
| Two deer                                                                      | 94.6           |                                |
| Seven deer                                                                    | 95.1           |                                |
| Open savanna borderedby aspen & conifer                                   | 95.9           | V.T. Ranch. (6:35 P.M.)        |
| Three deer                                                                    | 97.7           |                                |
| Two deer                                                                      | 98.4           |                                |
| One deer                                                                      | 99.4           |                                |
|                                                                               | 01.5           | Entrance to Natl Park.         |
| Few Ponderosa Pine                                                            | 05.1           |                                |
| Two deer                                                                      | 10.6           |                                |
| One deer                                                                      | 11.57          | Beyond junction to Cape Royal. |
| One deer                                                                      | 12.3           |                                |
| Two deer                                                                      | 16.7           |                                |
|                                                                               | 17.8           | Look out Point.                |
| One deer                                                                      | 19.4           |                                |