

Jan. 28, 1991

Day clear, temp. 28°F. One of the larger male mule deer lost antlers.

Jan. 29, 1991

♀ mule deer 1½ years old and an Eastern grey squirrel feeding from 1' to 2' apart. Deer placed nose on tail of squirrel and no reaction from squirrel. When deer places nose in direction of head of squirrel, the squirrel move about a foot away. Occasionally deer gently thrust foot toward squirrel but not contact.

Raven called from Humphrey Head ridge top from 11:05^{AM} to 1:30 P.M.

Bee Estate, Humphrey Head, Lopez Island, San Juan Co., Wa.

Feb. 1, 1991

High wind this A.M. from S. Silt from Spring Cove slide and shoreline erosion S of Lichen Point has produced the following pattern of grayish silt against blue water and conforms to tidal currents.

Feb. 2, 1991

4:22 P.M. 2 harbor seal on Leo Reef. no eagles on nest NE Frost Island. At sundown 3 glaucous-winged gulls from top of Bee House called 45 minutes until an adult bald eagle left perching tree at Boundary Point, at that time the gull stopped their calling.

Feb. 3, 1991

Silt more pronounced and extension of condition of Feb. 1, 1991. 2 adult bald eagles chased ^{Feb. 4, 1991} an immature bald eagle who had a scrap of food in talons, to a tree where they finally secured the food.

10:50 A.M. Two black turnstones and 2 surfbirds fed and rested on rocks of shoreline below Bee House.

4th instance of conifer trees ^{on Humphrey Head} having upper 20'-25' of top blown off trees by strong S winds.

Smallest deer at Bee House feeding area is 23" high at shoulders and is an orphan. This deer is the lowest in the dominance order.

Trip to Lopez Village. At Fishermans Bay Causeway: Low tide and extensive mud flats in lagoon. On west side of Causeway, 4 buffleheads, 2 common goldeneye ducks, 11 glaucous-winged