Left Sea Tac 6:09 A.M. and cruised at 41,000 ft. Landed Salt Lake City 7:38 A.M., temp 47°F. Left Salt Lake airport approx 9:26 A.M. and arrived Dulles International airport at 3:15 P.M. Route along S side Uinta mts, Kansas-Nebraska border, across Missouri + E. From Seattle to Dulles airport at 41,000 ft is a band of yellow air pollution consistently about 500' thick that can only be seen when looking horizontally thru the clouds, above and below one cannot see the pollution. From Dulles airport rented a car and drove to Yoki and Lucille Kaufman's home in Patomac where we stayed for overnight.

Lucille and Bob treated us royally today. First a tour of Washington, D.C., then a helicopter tour ^(hr.) of the city and in the evening an evening meal overlooking D.C. from the W. On the helicopter tours made following Kodachrome shots:

910402-11 Jefferson Memorial Building, Washington D.C.

910402-12

910402-13 Pentagon Building, Wash D.C. in background.
