

Messrs. Robert and William Heytham

I we are now at the 24th Instant confirming the foregoing to be copy of our last to w^{ch} have butt little to add nothing occurring since the arrival of the adventure Cap^t: admiring from Boston w^{ch} pipes tubes etc and fish bound to Jamaica this we designe you by a sloop w^{ch} carries the second vial of our Bills w^{ch} we draw on Mess^{rs}: Heytham for 4^l: areth w^{ch} we doubt not but will meet wth your concurrence to the vessels spent in copy are still here and now must stay till the holidays are over we crave leave to kiss your hands and remaine

Y^{rs}

Madira y. 20th January 1707 @

The few lines a foregoing we confirm to be a copy & now come to add w^{ch} small matter has since occurd, the 12th Inst. Mess^{rs}: Heytham ship speed we arrived here & the Sidwell Gally from Kingcaste who in bad weather parted wth the estate of Victuallers bound for New S. the former proceeded for B^{ost}: wth a Brig^t: belonging to Boston w^{ch} loaded here about 100 us wine & what we believe the will come to a good market. the latter went for Jam^a wth her provisions in Comp^{er}: of the vessel mentioned in Copy of a Brig^t: the ships y^e went to the Islands have had bad success y^e year having now advice y^e five laste of y^e are lost. w^{ch} it has disappointed the Island of the wheate they expected. & for the Great has made it scarce, as y^e weather has bin cold & Rainey have not begun to Rack y^e New wines, nor as yett have tasted any in some parts they make some Complaints in others not, w^{ch} we hope shall finde y^e in generally Britty good, which it w^{ch} offers w^{ch} wishin^g you many a Happy New Year Remaine

Here Remaine in part^{ly} a small Gentleman
Moore & a Brig^t: for antiquae
Edm^d B^{ost} M^o

your most Hum^{ble} Serv^{ant}
Boston, J^oseph Morgan

No. 55-

2

8