

Messrs Robert & William Heysham Madeira 10 June 1709

Gentl^{ms}

The foregoing was the 24 ultimo of the margratt gally who went hence with a fire wind which lasted some days which we hope bett her pritty forward in her way home which we wish her safe to arrive and the ~~Magazines~~ ^{Magazines} procure to content in closed we send you the second Bill of Loading and ^{copy of the} invoice we have begun our harvest in parts about the Citie and in a few Days will in other parts further Remoat see the Saile for foreign Corne is near huar for these summer moth till if naturus have Expended their owne Crops we shall have noe oportunitie in the saile Butt shall be forced to goe Trusting itt oute for the next year for the State of our Island is such thatt noething sell for money thatt is any thing Considerable little money Being in the Island and thatt Daley decreasing soethatt you are wondarfully mistaken to thinke thatt your wheatt would make money anyat we have not made 150000⁰ in money nor do we expect shall now any more soethatt we cannot believe we cannot make you good your wheatt now oute of the Cost of These ises you may Depend we shall not Desire you to suplye us with more Bills in this then with our mearneseritys obliges us to for we Ever Studied to make you as ease as we could in thatt as well as all othar poyents Butt of this more hear after as opp^t shall offer in the in from supos Mr. Stepney will have the needfull orders as small

The weathur continues faire for Both the Harvest as well as the winter and we hope itt is likely to continue from the westron Island we have advice off a plenty full Harvest soethatt we believe Corne will Decline in price port a Jan^o Computed to have upwards of 250 m^d wheatt and 1200 m^d Barley

Noe ship has Done Dispaht since our Last but we have now in porte which as since arrived Capt. Owen Philips in adbrigt from Road Island, ^{and two Sloops from Do.} with pipe staves Traine oile and Bechalras one of the Last at Kelt urns The othar two Proceed to the Island to Load Corne the Madeira Gally from amy Belonging to This Island and the Next man Capt. Millar from Glasco Belonging to the India Coy Thatt place Bound to Battavia she takes in Coppies wher and will saile in aday or two severall ships appear of yesterday of the west End of this Island Butt stid away to sea we supos they wear the Dutch Carasaw men we have nothing furd ar att present worth y^r notice Butt Remaine with Due Respects

We have Done Expecting the Invoice of the Longe Ells of Gripin which as yet we we have not had tho' hee wrot to our W^m Bolton severall times about itt hope by the Ships Expected y^e will send them us othar wayes Canott make up Acc^t with the people hear nor send you y^r acc^t Curant

Gentlemen

We are now at the 29th June Confirm. the foregoing to w^{ch} have little to add nothing since materiall having occurred only the arrivall of a small Sloope from New York w^{ch} Pipe staves w^{ch} returned, & since noe vessel dispaht Except the road Island Sloope, there are still here, We thought the India man would have gon before Now but find they were in noe great haste having already lost their Passays for y^e season

W^m