

Had not your Good selves Condescended there to, wth you did in Friend Shiptous on acct. of our having orders to Supply the men of warr. for wth we returne you our heartly thanks. the came over Wth intimates to us — We thanke you likewise for the Caird you ordered Mr Stepney to take of our bills. to whom you would goe remitting against the time of our Publick occasion for wth may be coming to us. for the Cost of theundry Parcels of wines we have loaded for you. out of wth we shall deduct the Hoopes & the amount of the woollen goods now lent us. & for the future shall send all our Receipts to you for the goods we shall from time to time have occasion off we thought our Wth would have gave y^m you as usuall. wth we find he did not doe, you say we have gott to Credit you wth 500 Ham. Pipettaves & Barrow wth thinke the Cavours them to B^r. & Hoopes & Culliford we shall Examine in to it, & shall note it Here after as shall finde itt, we are glad there is such great Hoopes of a peace we Pray God lend itt, y^r trade may againe flourish as before, wth none you will be more largely concerned in our trade, y^r you have bin of Late years, — depending you shall have no reason ^{thinke} to we are not willing you should drive the trade to as much advantage as others doe. we we againe on y^r Point assure you we shall ^{use our utmost endeavors to} make you Easie — it shall be our Study we to doe — The Fleet tooke off about 180000 wth wreckning those loaded on the men of warr, there is now foreigne — wheate at markett the Harvest is begun in most Parts about y^r City, The Natives are forced. to take of their New Crop as soone as they Gather itt

N^o 6