M.r Robert Heysham

Madeira 25.th June 1700

S.r

We confirme the aforegoing Coppy of our last w.ch was intended y.r Lisbon, but went via Barbados y.e the Foy Man of warr this goes y.e Deale castle now in Porte toucheth at this Iland in her way to Nevis, here hath happned some raine that did damage to the vines but not considerable. we have good weather againe, and now it is beyond all dispute that our vintage wil be large -

Copias

you have here with our Bil for £100 at Thirty days sight, on M.r Richard Norris of M.r Thomas Johnson & Comp.a Merchants in Leverpoole, payable in the House of M.r Alexander Caerne Merchant in London, when received please to carry to our Credit -

Mess.rs Clark Benner & Comp.a writes us under the 7.th Curr.te that they had remitted you these following Summes Viz.t

10000	U reis	at 6:	6 1/2 p.ra
1200	: ——	at 6:	7 p.ra
600	: ——	at 6:	6 p.ra
313	: 725	at 6:	4 p.ra
500	: ——	at 6:	5 p.ra
260	: ——	at 6:	3 p.ra
38730	725	Reis -

Thes write us that the Exchange was come to 6: 1: p.ra & 6: 1/2 p.ra; and falling soe that iti very probable you wil have a good opportunity of remitting in these somer Months, and it is without all question that from December to March the Exchange wil be up againe, you would doe well to write them because they say they never had but one letter from you - we now send you M.r Thomas Mathewes Bil for £30- on his Mother Mad.m Jane Mathewes payable in the House of M.r Micajah Perry - being what offers -

S.r

Madeira 4.th July 1700

Last night put into this Road a french ship from the Canaries bound to Cadiz by whom this goes with Second vias of the Bills on M.r Richard Norris and Thomas Johnson of Leverpolle for £100; and £30- on Mad.m Jane Mathewes whereof goe letters of Advice -

Copias

we can now thoroughly informe you that our vintage wil be large the weather cannot be better; now our hopes is only upon a good season to gather it - you may therefore take your measures according to what we have proposed for your sending a ship to lade Early in January with the first wines for Barbados w.ch we belive wil be your interest to doe - the wheate sells slowly, & wil render an ordinary acc.t we wish we were clear of it - please to send us a price Curr.t - we are -

S.r

Madeira 20.th July 1700

The aforegoing are Coppys, since which here is noe Alteration in our affairs, wheat sels slowly, indeed we may scarce any thing, we wish we may preserve it from the Weevle this Hott weather for keepe it continually stirring, and shall be glad when it is gon from our Hands, —

We have told you in the aforegoing our Opinion of the approaching vintage, w.ch wil be larger then any we have had for three yeaus past, but not soe large as sometimes hath been —