Madeira 15th April 1702 @

I have several of yours p. Capp. Moulton, wch I cannot answare every particular, This goeing by an indirect Conveyance, vz. St. Michaels, I receiued a letter from cousin Beaufoy of the 8th December, who writes mee that the free Farme Rent of Warwick is to bee sold, wch being a charge upon the Estate, I am very solicitous to buy it of, & in order to it have written to that effect, & that in case the purchase bee made, I desire you to supply the Money for payment, as you will bee advised when Effected wee recd your Order to lade 100 pps. wine for Barbados, and as I had formerly advised you of my intention to lade upon the Brigantine Bristol, Capp.
Thomas Jennour Comander, who was then gone to Terceira, who is now returnd & in porte and in case hee doth proceed for Barbados, wee shall lade the Complement on bonde him you wrote us that you had remitted £4000— to Messrs. Clarke & Comp. at 5p 10—But by his att. sent us under the 23 Ultimo, hee credits us only by your remisses 11 Bills, 669$U143 reis & in 9 Bills more 5814U286 reis wch makes together 12512U429 reis and at the above Exchange is les £350—Wee desire you to rectifie this Mistake, because if more was remitted it might bee allowed us by Messrs. Clarke, & if not that it may bee rectified in your Books to our Credit, being what offers from

Madeira 27th April 1702 @

Wee confirme the aforegoing Copy & having noted to you the Difference wee find betweene £4080 remitted Messrs. Clarke at 5p 10, and what they Credited us by your Remisses being 12512U429 reis, wee cannot apprehend where the Mistake lies, either they doe not credit us to the full, or else you did not the whole, wee now write them to examine it more particularly it will be easily adjusted — Since the aforegoing time to advise you, that wee have confirmed our Order concerning the Fee Farme Rent of Warwick, have written Mr. Wilkes to inspect the Matter, and to doe what is necessary, our Letter to him goes under your Covert, if hee happen to bee in Towne at his Chamber in Clifford Inn, please to deliver it, as you goe to Westminster, if not, forward p. first Poste to him —
The Brigantine Bristol Capp. Thomas Jennour Comander is now lading for Barbados, on whom wee have begun to ship the 100 Pipes as you ordered and presume may be dispatched before this Conveyance goes, that we may send you the Inboice, wee have taken Care that the Wines may answare Expectation, & are makeing further Provision for what you mention in yours of 26th January, that if Liberty be granted you intend to concerne your Selfe in a Ship for 200 Pipes.
