We could hear today that they were sold and delivered — Papa telegraphed Mr Lyman to send Bonds to Chase Bank which I suppose he has done — We are looking for your letters of this week — hoping you will tell us something of the attempted revolution — which the New York Herald published and Mr Brady enclosed the clipping in his letter. — I have subscribed for Harpers Magazine to be sent to San José I hope you will take care of them if they are going there — Papa is getting better slowly he is not yet out of his room but we hope he may get down stairs this week — If we could have pleasant weather it would do much for him — Snow fell last night and this morning it was very deep — but today is bright and sunny and I hope we may have a few such days —

Don't worry about us any more than you can help — but take care of yourself and family — and I hope we will soon be together and have such a happy time that we may forget all these
