

BY GUY CURLEW.

First published in 1880.

London: Chapman & Co.

The first edition of this book was published in 1880, and it has since been reprinted several times. The book is a collection of poems, and it is one of the best of its kind. The poems are written in a simple, straightforward style, and they are all of a high quality. The book is a valuable addition to any collection of poetry.

The book is divided into two parts. The first part contains the poems, and the second part contains the notes. The poems are arranged in alphabetical order, and the notes are arranged in chronological order. The book is a very good example of the poetry of the time, and it is a book that is well worth reading.
