

STUART GORDON

Lightship Captain, Vancouver

La Jolla, California

Having adopted the name "Stuart Gordon" in 1914, I have since then used it in all my correspondence and in all my publications. The name "Stuart Gordon" is not a pseudonym, but a name which I have chosen to use in all my correspondence and in all my publications. I have chosen this name because it is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race.

The name "Stuart Gordon" is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race. I have chosen this name because it is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race.

The name "Stuart Gordon" is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race. I have chosen this name because it is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race.

The name "Stuart Gordon" is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race. I have chosen this name because it is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race.

The name "Stuart Gordon" is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race. I have chosen this name because it is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race.

The name "Stuart Gordon" is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race. I have chosen this name because it is a name which is not associated with any particular person or place, and because it is a name which is not associated with any particular religion or race.