

NESTOR KESSLING

Plan of History Class

History is the study of the past. It is a record of the events that have taken place in the world since the beginning of time. It is a record of the lives of the people who have lived on this earth, and of the things they have done. It is a record of the progress of the human race, and of the changes that have taken place in the world.

The study of history is important because it helps us to understand the world in which we live. It helps us to see the causes of the things that are happening in the world, and to see the effects of the things that have happened in the past. It helps us to see the progress of the human race, and to see the changes that have taken place in the world.
