

PARADISEA MINOR, Shaw.
(Young Male & Female.)

W. Hart del. et lith.

Mintern Bros. imp.

I had great
steamers co
every hour o
enough for a
bakehouse, an
came through steamer when hatchway whi
journey from
in the Zoolog
the spectator
heat; and I f
loose in the t
this country f

The late M
two Birds of about five inc
each side bel
how fond th
a little cooke
clinging to th
and were very
to full perfect
loud call the meeting the almost dazze
almost under
they would no
by a wire divi
when on the
became very t
down from th
few days; an
birds, after th
other richly o

The followi
Adult male forehead and
of head and
golden straw-
all the feathe
straw-colour
the wing-quill
two centre tai of body from two large tuff
the flank-tuft
like the breas
tarsus 2.

Adult fema
are seen in t
of face, and th
colour, with v
downwards, si