

W. Hart del. et lith.

PARADISEA DECORA, Salv. et Godm.

Miner Bros. imp.

Paradisea

Paradisea

This beautiful
was discovered
birds on the
of his discovery
first specimen
individuals
very like the
to it a peculiar but, so far
found alone.

"We never
On showing
both cases,
or three of new bird was

Since the collectors were
of the island
Fergusson
numerous of

P. decora
back, the ab-
of the abdomen

The following

Adult male
ear-coverts;
being entirely
drab or ash-
brown, washed
base of forehead
and throat vinaceous grey with very few plumes a pale grey; quills
culmen 1.35

Adult female
with dull steel
the female;