

DAVIDSON GARDNER

THE BOOK

The first part of the book is devoted to a general survey of the history of the book-press in Scotland, from the earliest times to the present day. It is a most interesting and valuable work, and one which every student of the history of the book-press should read.

The second part of the book is devoted to a detailed account of the book-press in Scotland, from the earliest times to the present day. It is a most interesting and valuable work, and one which every student of the history of the book-press should read.
