

The image shows the spine of an antique book bound in deep red leather. The spine is decorated with several horizontal bands of gold-tooled patterns. These include wide bands with a repeating floral motif of stylized flowers and scrolling vines, and narrower bands with a repeating scalloped or beaded pattern. The text is gold-tooled in a classic serif font. The title 'BIRDS OF AUSTRALIA.' is positioned in the upper section, followed by the author's name 'GOULD.' and the volume number 'VOL. V.' in the lower section. At the very bottom, the publication information 'LOND. 1848.' is visible.
