

THEOLOGY LIBRARY

1100 North Dearborn Street

Chicago, Illinois 60610-5075

THEOLOGY LIBRARY
1100 North Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60610-5075
This is a preliminary sketch of a book on the history of the church in the United States. It is intended to be a general survey of the subject, and to show the development of the church from the first settlement of the Pilgrims to the present time. The book is divided into three parts: the first part deals with the early years of the church, the second part with the middle years, and the third part with the modern period. The first part covers the period from 1600 to 1700, the second part from 1700 to 1800, and the third part from 1800 to the present. The book is written in a simple, straightforward style, and is intended to be accessible to a wide range of readers. It is hoped that it will be of use to students of church history, and to anyone interested in the development of the church in the United States.