

in one species is a native is a highly blind in Van is quite numerous in led, constantly flut-
get forth-like song: as lie sitting on the tonains, or among the mancapes formed by little erial, are the situatquid from the extreme wet from the water, it time, which is inven-
one strip of the soft it which also the nest are open to vary from the only part of Decem-large; but only two; the to color and disposition high chestnut-red, particin breeding-season it ex-ones a clattering and v-