

MYXOMELA NIGRA, new

Black Honeycreeper

Myxomela nigra, new species. Length 11.5 cm. Weight 10.5 g. (male). Length 11.0 cm. Weight 10.0 g. (female).

The male has a black head and neck, with a black throat and a black breast. The back is black, with a black tail. The female has a black head and neck, with a black throat and a black breast. The back is black, with a black tail.

The male has a black head and neck, with a black throat and a black breast. The back is black, with a black tail. The female has a black head and neck, with a black throat and a black breast. The back is black, with a black tail.

The male has a black head and neck, with a black throat and a black breast. The back is black, with a black tail. The female has a black head and neck, with a black throat and a black breast. The back is black, with a black tail.

The male has a black head and neck, with a black throat and a black breast. The back is black, with a black tail.