

AGATHINA REGIUM DIE. 20. 1848.

Regina Victoria

1848

1848

The first of the month of the year 1848 was a day of great importance to the British people. It was the day when the Queen Victoria, in the presence of the whole nation, proclaimed the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Edinburgh, as the Prince of Wales. This was the first time since the reign of King George III that a Prince of Wales had been proclaimed in the presence of the whole nation. The ceremony took place in the presence of the whole nation, and was a most magnificent and memorable occasion. The Prince of Wales, the Duke of Edinburgh, was proclaimed in the presence of the whole nation, and was a most magnificent and memorable occasion. The Prince of Wales, the Duke of Edinburgh, was proclaimed in the presence of the whole nation, and was a most magnificent and memorable occasion.