

ALPHABETICALLY

Unpublished Manuscripts

Manuscript No. 1. Title: "The History of the City of London." Author: John Smith. Date: 1650. Location: London. Description: A manuscript of the history of the city of London, written by John Smith. It contains a detailed account of the city's history, from its founding to the present. The manuscript is written in Latin and is in good condition.

Manuscript No. 2. Title: "The History of the City of London." Author: John Smith. Date: 1650. Location: London. Description: A manuscript of the history of the city of London, written by John Smith. It contains a detailed account of the city's history, from its founding to the present. The manuscript is written in Latin and is in good condition.

Manuscript No. 3. Title: "The History of the City of London." Author: John Smith. Date: 1650. Location: London. Description: A manuscript of the history of the city of London, written by John Smith. It contains a detailed account of the city's history, from its founding to the present. The manuscript is written in Latin and is in good condition.