

The image shows the spine of a book bound in dark red leather. The spine is decorated with several gold-tooled bands. Each band consists of a central rectangular panel with a repeating floral pattern of stylized flowers and scrolling vines. This panel is bordered by a thin gold line, a decorative scalloped or beaded line, and another thin gold line. Between these panels are solid gold bands. The text is also gold-tooled in a serif font.

BIRDS OF AUSTRALIA

GOULD.
—
VOL. I.

LOND. 1848.