

er, so characteristic
uninteresting to the
peasants, which but
s time nothing like
since they may be Colchicum in Asia

Kelsall, and G. D.

en; chin, throat,
east, and under
upper part of the s of buff running
back and upper
l with purple;
and irregularly
enish-grey, and
s-grey, slightly
her at the base
come gradually
crease in size;
wanting, those
tufts of black

the markings
very dark or
chestnut line;
close to the
s; tertiaries
on the outer
crossed by
ral feathers
uff; all the
op of each

fr. Woll.