

DEBROGHRIEBOON WALLAQUIE, 1888

By Mrs. J. M. Wallaqui

Published by the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui Press, 1888

The first part of this book is a history of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui people, from the time of their first settlement in the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui region, to the present day. It is a history of a people who have lived in the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui region for many centuries, and who have been known to the world as the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui people. The second part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui people, their customs, their religion, and their language. The third part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui region, its geography, its climate, and its resources. The fourth part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui people, their customs, their religion, and their language. The fifth part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui region, its geography, its climate, and its resources. The sixth part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui people, their customs, their religion, and their language. The seventh part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui region, its geography, its climate, and its resources. The eighth part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui people, their customs, their religion, and their language. The ninth part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui region, its geography, its climate, and its resources. The tenth part of the book is a description of the Debrogrieeboon Wallaqui people, their customs, their religion, and their language.