

be in his way, stream after him.
the lower branches of which (i. e. to be its favourite resort. Its in its stomach.
most exciting as they fly to and fro.

found in several other parts of varying from 6000 to 8000 ft of San Antonio or Chilasco, above the slopes of the great Cordillera.
In all these places I have seen no traveller with me in 1861-62.
The months of February, development."

by Mr. Robert Owen in 'The
of Santa Cruz [Vera Paz], one Chilasco, a place in the same would send my servant to help two eggs. They stated that they the ground. There was but one whole interior cavity was barely signs of a nest beyond a layer of the mountaineers all say that the e, probably founding the suppo-

form is a roundish oval, only 1.15 inch.

al plumes of this bird, even in as broad as the hand and a arrow-feathered birds are also has been called by Dr. Cabanis ntly pronounced to warrant the from Chiriqui and the higher the northward of the village of erved, the low-lying lands of the ce.