

Myzomela anna

THIS little Myzomela adolphinae f. having the whole of the tail-coverts scarlet; the rump and underparts yellowish olive.

The single specimen was collected in the cocoa-nut trees.

This pretty little bird was figured by Mr. M. J. M. in the Moluccas and the East Indies, and was collected by Mr. J. M. J. in the villages.

Adult male.
The head and neck are scarlet; wing-coverts blue-black; the lores are scarlet; the bases of the feathers are ashy, the bases of the feathers are yellowish olive; the edge of the wing is dirty green; the tarsus 0.6.

The figures in