

MANU

Manacus Paradise-bird, Lath.
Manacus chalybeus, Bodd. Tab.
pl. vi. (1873).
Paradisus viridis, Gmel. Syst. N.
Paradisus chalybeus, Lath. Ind. C. de Oudé, Vieill. Ois. Dor. vo.
Paradisus chalybeus, Vieill. Nouv.
Manacus chalybeus, Less. Tra.
Manacus viridis, Gray, Gen.
Rosenb. Journ. für O.
Manacus viridis, Gray, Proc.
Chalybeus viridis, Schleg. Tijdsch.

...at the above list of
...a hundred years. Form
...birds; latterly, however
...ered. That this species is
...ntained to the contrary.
...hope that we may not long
...determined by some peculiari
...The following is taken from
...The Green Manucode rese
...only all stages of plumage b
...and, indeed, these peculiarly
...they frequently possess variegat
...Feathers of the head short
...black, with the tips a bright me
...the breast appearing as th
...very glossy upon the secondary
...black. Tail purplish blue like th
...A still more perfect descript
...p. 182, is as follows:—
...Male.—Head purple
...black, as also the hinder
...black recurved; wings and tail
...black shaded with steel-bl
...black like those of the crown
...black, crinkled and curled and o
...black tipped with this colour,
...black with a slight greenish
...black; bill and legs black
...New Guinea. Regio
...The figure on the Plate is of