

AULACORHAMPHUS CERULEOCULARIS, Gould

Gould & Richter, del. & lith.
J. H. Maudslayi & Walton, imp.

AULACORA

Aul. gulá caeruleá.

Upper surface dark green the rump and upper base with dark green with rich chestnut; th washed with yellow
black, with the exce apical portion of the tip; on the sides of h yellow, and on the lo Total length, 12½ inches

Aulacorhamphus caeruleog

The new species of Groove-B Naturalist to H.M.S. Herald, allied to A. albivitta; but may at the base of the bill being m under surface being washed wi new species with the greatest in at an opportune moment for in The figures are of the natura