

RELIGION AND CIVILIZATION

Copyrighted by the Author

Printed by the Author, 1881

London: Printed by the Author, 1881

Price 1s. 6d.

The Author's address is 1, The Strand, London, W.C.

Religion and Civilization, by the Author, 1881

The first object of this book is to show that the religious and civilizing influences of the Christian era have been the most powerful and effective in the history of the world. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the progress of the human race.

The second object of this book is to show that the religious and civilizing influences of the Christian era have been the most powerful and effective in the history of the world. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the progress of the human race.

The third object of this book is to show that the religious and civilizing influences of the Christian era have been the most powerful and effective in the history of the world. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the progress of the human race.

The fourth object of this book is to show that the religious and civilizing influences of the Christian era have been the most powerful and effective in the history of the world. It is a book which should be read by every one who is interested in the progress of the human race.

The Author's address is 1, The Strand, London, W.C.