

COLLEGIUM PAMBA

1880-1881

The first year of the college was a very successful one. The students were well behaved and the teachers were very kind. The college was very well run and the students were very happy. The college was very well run and the students were very happy.

The second year of the college was also a very successful one. The students were well behaved and the teachers were very kind. The college was very well run and the students were very happy.

The third year of the college was also a very successful one. The students were well behaved and the teachers were very kind. The college was very well run and the students were very happy.

The fourth year of the college was also a very successful one. The students were well behaved and the teachers were very kind. The college was very well run and the students were very happy.

The fifth year of the college was also a very successful one. The students were well behaved and the teachers were very kind. The college was very well run and the students were very happy.

The sixth year of the college was also a very successful one. The students were well behaved and the teachers were very kind. The college was very well run and the students were very happy.

The seventh year of the college was also a very successful one. The students were well behaved and the teachers were very kind. The college was very well run and the students were very happy.